FRAC's Tips for Lobbying Visits

Arranging Your Hill Visit:

Call ahead to schedule an appointment with your Member or the Congressional Aide assigned to work on your specific issue. Requests to meet with Members may need to be in writing. All information can be found through your Member's website, www.house.gov and www.senate.gov. The Capitol switchboard is (202) 225-3121.

Know your Member.

- Do some research: look up your Member's biographical information, resume, congressional committee assignments, caucuses joined, etc.
- Study voting records.

Prepare a concise one-page fact sheet to leave behind. The fact sheet should be simple and to the point. You can include any of the following suggestions:

- Descriptions of the problems you want solved and specifically what actions you want the elected official to take to solve them.
- Information about your organization – services you provide or impacts your program has in the District/State.
- Local press clippings.
- Photographs and easy-to-understand charts and graphs that make your point. If you have been unable to get your Member to visit your agency, prepare a scrapbook or photo album that captures the services you provide.

Research opposing views and prepare talking points that address these concerns.

- Know how to respectfully counter an argument that disagrees with your position.
- Back up your position with facts and statistics; avoid moral or emotionally charged arguments.

Pre-Visit Checklist:

Keep in mind the purpose of your visit and be organized. Choose one person to serve as a facilitator. - This person will make introductory remarks, organize introductions, and keep things flowing.

- Be on time—allow time to get through security.
- Be patient – Member/aides are often running late—hearings, meetings, votes.
- Be prepared – If your appointment gets cut short, make sure you have a “2-minute elevator ask.” (Your “quick” pitch if you run into your Member.)

During Your Visit:

Determine the amount of time the group will have with the Member/Aide.

Introduce all members of the group - Unless you're an extremely large group, be sure every person has something to add to the discussion.

Stay on topic.

- Keep presentation simple and straightforward.
- Present your issues briefly and persuasively.

Emphasize the District/State.

- Talk about local examples and the impact your work has in your community.
- Relate a specific incident or story that describes how the issue/proposal will affect your district, business, the people you serve -- your community.

Be Specific.

- "The Ask" - Be specific about what you want your Member to do (e.g., sign letter to the President, cosponsor a bill, vote against/for a bill).
- Have the specific bill/proposal with you that you want to discuss.
- Make sure your Member knows what you expect from him or her.

Post-Visit Checklist:

Have a follow-up plan to monitor progress and build a relationship.

- Send a thank you note for the meeting.
- Send any relevant information requested during the meeting.
- Add your Member to your mailing list (newsletters, press releases, invitations to local events).
- Invite your Member to visit your agency or tour your facility.
- Keep in touch regularly with your Member and send studies, reports and news items related to your program.

General Do's and Don'ts of Lobbying

Do	Don't
1. Tell them you're a constituent or have programs that serve constituents	1. Make long speeches
2. Demonstrate your broad community-based support	2. Ignore the staff- they have lots of knowledge and influence
3. Be brief and listen respectfully	3. Don't be afraid to say "I don't know." You can always research information and get back to them.
4. Find common ground	4. Be partisan or argumentative
5. Focus on specific issues/proposals, not vague goals	5. Forget to invite the Member to visit your program and follow-up after the meeting
6. Keep the long-term perspective	6. Forget "The Ask" during the meeting (be specific)
7. Tailor your remarks and presentation to the time allotted	7. Forget to thank the Member/Aide for their time, even if they don't agree with your position – there's always a next time!

Contacting Hill Offices

Contacting Staff by E-Mail:

Email addresses of House and Senate staff usually* follow the format below:

House staff – Firstname[dot]lastname[at]mail[dot]house[dot]gov
(e.g., Jane.Doe@mail.house.gov).

Senate staff – First name[underscore]last name[at]Senator's last name[dot]senate[dot]gov
(e.g., Jane_Doe@Lugar.senate.gov).

*Sometimes Committee staff use a slightly different format with the name of the committee in the email address
(e.g., Jane_Doe@agriculture.senate.gov).

Facebook:

Most Members of Congress have a Facebook account. Becoming friends or 'liking' your Member is a great way to follow what he or she is doing in DC and in the District. To see if your Member is on Facebook, go to www.facebook.com and search for your Member.

Twitter:

Twitter your Members of Congress! Twitter is one of the newest and easiest ways to contact your Members of Congress. Once you have a twitter account set up all you have to do to contact your Member is find their twitter handle (@MOC____) and compose a tweet with their handle in it.

Example: Hey, @MOC___, did you know that 46 million Americans rely on SNAP?

Remember, a tweet can only have 140 characters (including spaces and punctuation marks); so include a link to your organization's website if you can't fit all of the information in one tweet.

When you are composing your tweets, try to use hashtags that other tweeters are using so your message will be part of the larger conversation. You can find out what hashtags others are using by searching for the topics on your homepage on Twitter. To see if your Member is on Twitter, go to www.twitter.com and search for your Member.
